CONCLUSION

The institution marches ahead with new developments in academic and research activities. The change and innovation contribute to positive atmosphere and instill hope to envisage success. It is a matter of pride for the institution to acknowledge the higher academic pursuits and accomplishments of its faculty members. Time constraint prevents me from mentioning the numerous other achievements of the College. They, however, find a place in the detailed College Report. On this note, I would like to conclude by thanking Almighty God for the wonderful way in which he has helped us move this far. Thank you.
