Dear Shariba,

On behalf of ANZ, I am pleased to offer you the position of Analyst with ANZ Support Services India Pvt Ltd (ANZ).

This letter provides you with the information you need to accept this offer and the things you will need to do prior to your commencement with ANZ. You will find enclosed a copy of your employment agreement.

Accepting ANZ's offer of employment and next steps

As part of our e-Execution process, you will be asked if you accept the offer and the terms of employment in the employment agreement (including the cover letter and Schedules). We must receive your e-Executed employment agreement electronically within five calendar days from the date of this letter, otherwise this offer may be withdrawn.

Please also bring the following original documents with you for verification on your first day of work:

- photo identification including any two of your current PAN card, voters identification, drivers licence or passport
- copies of all documents relating to your skills, experience and qualifications, as required by ANZ
- where applicable, copies of all visas you have to enable you to work in India

If this documentation is not provided prior to your commencement with ANZ, you may be asked to defer commencement until the documentation is produced. Please also arrange to:

1. Open a bank account

All ANZ employees are required to have their salary credited to an ANZ bank account, where such a facility is available. If your location does not currently have such a facility, ANZ will assist you in opening a bank account with a preferred bank as determined by ANZ at the relevant time.

2. Provide consent to undergo pre-employment screening

To comply with its legal and regulatory obligations and in accordance with ANZ policy, ANZ may require you to consent to undergo a police record check or other background checks before you commence employment with ANZ.
